Sunshine Report

All is well except Rogers' jokes!

Songspiration

Almost forgot to sing "in the good ole summertime" led by Larry L. John was in a big hurry to fine everyone without a rotary pin on their lapel!

$$$ FINES, FINES, FINES

John now calls these "Recognitions" and they say doctors use Euphemisms

Not many people with B-days and other celebrations this week:

Kittie gave the very SAD Nortre Dame report – 24-21 "Boo Purdue"

John was happy to report that USC won for onec but sad that they did NOT cover the spread. Richard S. wasn't there to receive his $10

Jennifer R., Kate McC, Tom C. and Carl V. didn't blink when John said he wasn't giving any points for this weeks came against Cal. We're not afraid.

G. Batch's wife got her B-day flowers. They had dinner in SF with son $50

Jack R.'s better half, June, had a Bd. Got flowers and had an almost surprise party $50
Ann McG confessed that she flew around Oregon and Idaho (literally) last week. Their radio stopped receiving on the way home but they landed safely. $6 - $1 for each landing and take-off

Happy $$$

Doug W. – a new U of O fan $2

Joan G. – tx to Andy S. for info on the Handcare Regatta – it was Awesome -

Echoed by Jenn R. and Mike H. who discussed the new "Steam Punk" trend and confused everyone
Kittie's phone rang - $$

Mike R – finally went to Bode? CA – cool place
Rogers - Son the CEO of company that won National Award. $5 Proud Papa dollars

Program Notes

Patch Guglielmino spoke briefly about her book "A Flag at Half Mast" about being an aid worker at Ground Zero after 9/11. She was there for 71 days in what felt like a war zone. She emphasized that due to the toxic chemicals released in the aftermath, the deaths and illnesses are still accumulating from that disaster. I'm sure the book is interesting reading. Its available on Amazon.
